SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM DEBTOR:

As the Bankruptcy Court is aware, this final and irrevocable Chapter 13 Plan and Confirmation Order [Dkts. 55, 55-1, 80] have been fully consummated and administered but for the act of closing on the contract of sale on the Rockville Property (set for May 30, 2023) and the contract of sale on the Laurel Property (set for May 25, 2023), and the hearing on the approval of those motions to approve which is set for May 16, 2023.

The Debtor has contacted the undersigned counsel to advise that he is giving direction to the Bankruptcy Judge for tomorrow that (i) Mr. Levin is to be terminated for cause immediately; (ii) the Debtor is to be moved back to Rockville Property immediately; (iii) the Laurel Property is to be sold to Debtor for $250,000.00; and (iv) the proceeds of the non-existent sale of Rockville Property and/or Laurel Property are to be repatriated to the Debtor's retirement account in the amount of $377,741.48 without payment of any claims, creditors or expenses, other than Mr. Levin at $35.00 per hour not $184.00 per hour. A facsimile was also just received memorializing some of these instructions to the presiding jurist by the undersigned's office with other details memorialized and it is attached as Exhibit 1.

These matters are relayed to the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with the recommendations of the MSBA Ethics Committee for decision by the presiding Bankruptcy Judge. The estate and SPE recommend that the Bankruptcy Court should rule on the Debtor's in person requests as it deems appropriate within the legal framework existing post-confirmation for actions deviating from the final Plan and final Confirmation Order.

Respectfully Submitted,
